

I have extensive experience in shooting corporate photography for a wide variety of purposes. Whatever it is you need – corporate headshots, group shots, product shots or premises shots, I make sure that client receives a body of dynamic photographs that present their team, their products and their services in the very best light.

CORPORATE TEAM SHOTS & INDIVIDUAL HEADSHOTS

Professional corporate portraiture to enhance image and perception

I travel to client offices with a portable lighting kit & backdrops.

A wide range of professional image requirements are catered for including Individual head shots
Team/department shots

BUSINESS EDITORIAL & CORPORATE EVENTS

Convey brand message and personality

I am highly experienced at capturing images of corporate events such as conferences, product launches, corporate dinners and awards nights, as well as those less formal occasions.

My process is to blend into the background, and let people enjoy themselves so that I can produce great photographs that not only publicise these events but also showcase your company in the best possible way.

TED DID A FANTASTIC JOB OF NOT ONLY
CAPTURING THE PEOPLE, THE PROFESSIONALISM AND THE PERSONALITY OF OUR COMPANY IN A NON-INTRUSIVE, HIGHLY EFFICIENT MANNER
